A NIGHT IN THE ORIENT

A truly fascinating program is to be experienced at the Villa Serena on Wednesday, April 11th, at 8:00 p.m. when NATHALIE STEUER presents her excellent and unusual slides of places in the Orient seldom seen by the average tourist. Her slides are accompanied by a commentary of humor and interesting experiences.

Mrs. Steuer has traveled extensively with her late husband, Judge Alfred L. Steuer, circling the globe three times.

Nathalie Steuer presents a unique program and certainly it is one we won't want to miss.

A SAD GOODBYE

Throughout the past three and a half years every morning we were greeted by a lovely smile and ever ready "May I help you" personality. No complaints, no task too great, but the ever willing desire to please in every possible way. This was our LaVerne, who served us faithfully in a most dignified manner.

And so it is with a bit of sadness that we say "so long" to her, but always remembering in our hearts that she is now feeling so much better physically and that she will some day soon come to visit us so that we might all once again have the opportunity to say "Thanks LaVerne for a job well done." Now you can have "your rest well earned."

Good luck always from all of us who will think of you often.

SAM LEVINSON--BOOK REVIEW

On Monday, February 26th, Harry Lasky presented a book review based on the life of the famous teacher and humorist, Sam Levinson. The name of the book EVERYTHING BUT MONEY.

Sam Levinson had a very humble beginning, coming from immigrant parents and being raised on the lower east side of Manhattan. He was one of eight children. Although his parents had a large family, they always kept close family ties and strived to educate their brood. Music was always a must and love and guidance was always there. As Sam termed it "papa was boss and mamma was foreman."

All of Sam's brothers became doctors, dentists, and successful business men. Sam became a teacher and later entered show business. Sam is married and has two children. He became interested in show business when he started writing humorous script for Sid Caesar.

I'm sure all who attended enjoyed Mr. Lasky's review tremendously. Our thanks to Harry Lasky for an entertaining evening.

Miriam Sitron reviewed for us the book HARRY TRUMAN written by his daughter, Margaret. A very amusing, entertaining and educational story of his early life, his love for his wife, his later life which led him into politics and finally the presidency.

It is a truly great book. Recommended reading.

"GOLDEN AGE" PASSPORT FOR NATIONAL PARKS

The Department of Interior has announced that the "Golden Age" Passport is now available at all areas of the National Park System where entry fees are charged, at all first and second class Post Offices and at certain National Forest locations.

An Interior Department spokesman said the Golden Age Passport is issued free to persons 62 or older and offers the holder a 50 percent discount on all Federal special recreation use fees, such as camping or boat-launching charges, in addition to free entry. It will be honored by all seven Federal agencies which administer public recreation lands.

National Park Service officials emphasized that application for the Passport must be made in person and proof of age such as a driver's license or birth certificate must be furnished, or an affidavit attesting to the person's age must be signed.

MONSIGNOR GALLAGHER'S
(March 9th)

Friday, March 9th, was another gem of an evening when a great number of wonderful people came to join in our celebration to pay special honor and tribute to our good friend and neighbor Msgr. Gallagher, on his retirement.

After a very savory dinner, enjoyed by all, the program began with a sing-a-long conducted by Mr. Chesler and accompanied on the piano by our smiling Sammy Berk. During the course of the evening we certainly had some very special talent for this auspicious occasion. They were Robert Dobbs, a 16 year old Gilmour Academy student who had won two scholarships in piano at the Cleveland Institute of Music. His performance was excellent as he played the beautiful classical music. The other wonderful performer was someone we all know and admire, Sylvester Blue, whose rich baritone voice always thrills everyone. These two were magnificent.

During the course of the entertainment, some of the Villa's residents, all in jest, presented Msgr. Gallagher with the following. Lad Cimlar, vice president of the Men's Club, presented him with a life long pass to the club and a pool stick as an honorary member of the pool club; Helen Burns presented him with a bingo card for all the bingo games; Eileen Bentler presented Msgr. G. with a set of garden tools from "Plus 60 Golly Green Gian Club," so he could become an amateur gardener, and to top it all, Mary Cologero handed Monsignor a warranty deed for a patch of land at the Villa. The wording of the deed was so funny that the audience was in stitches. In conclusion and on the serious side, Mr. Chesler presented Msgr. Gallagher with a beautifully

BIRTHDAY-ANNIVERSARY AND
ST. PATRICK'S CELEBRATION

It was a great day for the Irish and everybody else at the Villa Center on Thursday, March 15th, as we celebrated St. Patrick's and Birthday and Anniversary day.

Well, of course everybody had a little bit o' Irish in him on this day. Although the Villa is made up of many ethnic groups, the wearing of the green was quite prevalent.

The typical corned beef and cabbage dinner, prepared by a jolly lass Evelyn Johnson, and the little bit of fire water that went very well with it, was enjoyed by all. What would St. Patrick be without leprechauns or little helpers? The following fit the bill quite well in helping Evelyn peel potatoes and prepare the cabbage: Jack Baker, Dominic Daly, Joe Bentler, Ray Schneid, and Lad Cimlar.

Mr. Chesler, in his green hat and full of good old Irish blarney, made a dashing handsome Irishman. Our musicians, all wearing the green and changing their names a bit to fit the occasion, were: Sammy O'Berk, Mike O'Jacobs, and Johnny O'Joyce. There were many celebrating their birthdays and only one handsome couple, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nye, celebrating their anniversary.

To be sure we had the traditional Irish dancing on this special evening. A refreshing group of five adorable children from the Una Ellis Irish Dancing School of Rocky River, Ohio, did the honors. They were just delightful.

OLDSTERS HAVE Rx FOR LIVING LONG

by George W. Cornell, AP Religion Writer

Old folks who have lived to advanced ages often are asked how it's done. To what habits or rules do they attribute their long life? They offer a pot-pourri of prescriptions, religious and otherwise.

A collection of them was assembled in a recent issue of the Immortality Newsletter, a bi-monthly roundup of antideath research and thought published in San Marcos, Calif.

It reports there currently are about 12,000 Americans who have lived more than 100 years, and presents this sampling of some of their formulas for achieving such longevity:

- "Believe in God. Pray daily."
- "Have a free mind. Don't fall for religious bunk."
- "Never drink alcohol."
- "Drink a pint of whisky per day."
- "Read the Bible."
- "Read spicy detective stories."
- "Get plenty of exercise."
- "Shun physical activity. Conserve your energy."
- "Get plenty of rest. Sleep 10 or 12 hours per day."
- "Never sleep over four hours per day."
- "Sleep with your feet pointed south, so that magnetic vibrations from the north will pass through your body and out through your feet, ordering and harmonizing all systemic functions in the process."
- "Sleep with your feet pointed north, so that magnetic vibrations from the north will pass upwards to your brain, with rejuvenating effect."
- "Abstain from meat, eating only raw fruits, vegetables and nuts."
- "Eat a pound of lean meat every day."
- "Abstain from dairy products."

- "Eat only eggs, butter, milk and cheese."
- "Drink plenty of water."
- "Never drink water. 'A little wine for the stomach's sake'".
- "Smoke a corncob pipe continuously."
- "Chew a plug of tobacco per day."
- "Avoid tobacco in every form."
- "Abstain from sex."
- "Have plenty of sexual activity"
- "Get plenty of sunshine. It is the source of all energy and health."
- "Avoid sunlight. It causes cancer."
- "Be at peace with yourself and all men."
- "Be onery. Have at least one good fight with somebody every day."
- "Don't cater to your appetites and whims. Observe strict self-discipline. Don't expect life to be too great, because it isn't. Prepare for the worst and you'll never be disappointed."
- "Do what you want, when you want it. Sleep when you're tired and rise when you're rested. Worry about nothing think young, and have some fun."

A. Stuart Otto, editor of the newsletter, comments: "Take your choice. Just don't try them all at once."

FUN TIME AT THE MARDI GRAS

It was Mardi Gras time at the Villa Serena Center on Saturday, March 3rd, with the stage all set for fun and frolic. This event usually takes place on Shrove Tuesday, the last day before Lent, in New Orleans, Paris, and many other places around the world.

Need I tell you the result? The Villa was filled with merry-makers elegantly dressed, masked and unmasked. The Center was decorated throughout with beautiful masks that our senior citizens had created in one of Marilyn Marks' classes and of course artistically placed on the walls by our own Nan Rood and her helpers.

After nearly two hundred senior citizens had partaken of the luscious traditional dinner prepared by none other than Evelyn Johnson, our own gourmet cook, and served by our staunch dining room girls and volunteers, we all retired to the recreation room for an evening of entertainment and dancing.

The music for this occasion was furnished by a Dixieland jazz group that really played up a storm. This fantastic ensemble consisted of the following: Sammy Berk, piano, Weizel Rosenberg, trumpet; Louie Naftulin, drums, Charles Angelotta, clarinet, Art Puhall, banjo, and James Lamont, trombonist.

What would a Mardi Gras be without a Red Hot Mamma? Of course, we had one in the person of Viola Jones who filled the bill very well. Another surprise for all of us was Mary Sherry, a former Rockett, who danced the Charleston, and she sure could strut. We also had a coronation for this ostentatious occasion.

Mr. Ed Picozzi was the lucky winner and was crowned king of the Mardi Gras. He made quite a handsome monarch.

What a night to remember. So much fun and laughter. Who has a better time than we do here at the Villa! Now you can settle down for Lent and behave for awhile, Ha! Ha!

worded proclamation on his retirement. Monsignor Gallagher thanked everybody for all these honors bestowed on him and declared that he would go on being of service to us and with the help of God and a little Geritol, he expects to make it! We all need some of the latter to give us a boost!

This was a wonderful way to pay tribute to someone we love and respect. I know something good was gained by everyone who attended this gathering.

BIRTHDAY-ANNIVERSARY and ST. PATRICK'S DAY (continued)

This memorable evening ended with refreshments. The party was over, the leperchauns vanished, and as strains of Irish music faded in the distance, we all went our different ways, quite refreshed.
