DEARIE, DO YOU REMEMBER??

In the good old summertime, the good old "us" are not in our prime. We "gripe" a lot, because it's too hot --- enough of this silly rhyme. Lucky us when you come right down to it. Take a little jaunt down memory lane and remember when every summer it was 90 degrees in the shade; when mom couldn't drop a coin in the washing machine, but scrubbed and scrubbed on the old wash board; when she got her facial (and remember how soft and beautiful her skin was) over that steaming copper wash boiler; no setting the dials on a dryer for her, just lines and lines of soft wind blown clothes -- provided the rain held off and the clothesline didn't break. A popicle to cool us off -- sure if we had nerve enough to hop the ice wagon and not get caught. An iceless with an automatic pop dispenser -- our pop was dispensed to us lukewarm from that old washtub full of ice at the church picnic and what a treat it was. No swimming here and you can't swim there--if we just happened to have our swim suits or even if we didn't we could cool off in any lake or stream or old swimming hole that we chanced upon. How can you compare a soft summer evening on the old front porch with only the moon and the fireflies lighting the dark with the chatter and laughter of grownups and kids together or maybe the humming of an old familiar tune to the sophisticated show on a colored TV in an air conditioned room. There is no comparison. Out to eat, only in a modern upto-the-minute dining room. Doesn't this sound oh so good and familiar?

May have to jog your memory a bit to recall -- Grandma, fry the chicken; Aunt Lucy, bring the pie; Grandpa, grab a dishcloth and swat that fly; ants crawlin' on the table; cover all the food; say, Aunt Min, your salad is real real good. Annie, can I have the recipe for that chocolate cake. Oh, good heavens, the baby just fell in the lake. Tommy, let your sister have a ride on that swing; drop that baseball in the lemonade again and they'll really hear you sing.

Nostalgia, yes, but we lived through it all, and we're still here, healthy, hearty, and happy and hoping that our young folks have beautiful memories and are grateful for what they have today. Enjoy what's left of the summer; find just one tiny something to enjoy every day of your life, but enjoy your memories most of all—because they belong just to you.

KITCHEN KORNER

SAUERKRAUT SURPRISE CAKE "A real delicious surprise"

1/2 cup butter or margarine

1 1/2 cups sugar

3 eggs

l teaspoon vanilla

2 cups sifted all purpose flour

1 teaspoon baking powder

l teaspoon baking soda

1/2 teaspoon salt

1/2 cup cocoa powder

1 cup water

1-8 oz. (1 cup) sauerkraut (drained, rinsed and finely snipped)

In large bowl cream butter or margarine and sugar till light. Beat in eggs, one at a time, add vanilla. Sift together flour, baking powder, soda, salt and cocoa; add to creamed mixture alternately with water, beating after each addition. Stir in sauerkraut. Turn into greased and floured 13 by 9 by 2 inch baking pan. Bake at 350 degrees for 35 to 40 minutes. Cool in pan. Frost with Sour Cream Chocolate Frosting.

Frosting: Melt one 6 oz. pkg. semisweet chocolate pieces and 4 tablespoons butter or margarine over low heat. Remove from heat. Blend in 1/2 cup dairy sour cream, 1 teaspoon vanilla and 1/4 teaspoon salt. Gradually add 2 1/2 to 2 3/4 cups confectioners sugar. Beat well to spreading consistency.

RIBBON SALAD

1 each: 3 oz. pkg. of Lime,
Orange, Lemon and Strawberry Jello
Dissolve 1 pkg. of Jello in
1 cup boiling water and add
1/2 cup cold water. Put in a large oblong mold (or in a 9 by 13 cake pan). Place in refrigerator until firm.

2 cups milk
1 cup sugar
2 pkgs. (not boxes) unflavored
 Knox gelatin
1/2 cup cold water
2 tsp. vanilla

Boil milk, add sugar. Dissolve gelatin in 1/2 cup cold water, add to boiled milk and let cool. Do not refrigerate. When cool add sour cream and vanilla. Beat until smooth. Do not refrigerate.

When first layer of Jello is firm, add 1 1/2 cups of cream mixture. Refrigerate until firm. Add second Jello. Make sure it is cold or it will dissolve the cream mixture. Then alternate Jello and cream ending with Jello. Make sure each layer of Jello and each layer of cream is firm before adding next layer.

HAND IN HAND

Man tills the soil that God put there,
He sows the seed with loving care.
The fruits we yield to Him we owe,
For He plays a part to help
things grow.
Each season, in all her grandeur, comes in view,
With spirits high and fruitful,

VILLA SERENA BIRTHDAY-ANNIVERSARY PARTY AND TALENT NICHT

After a heat spell, the night of our July birthday-anniversary party turned out "COOL" in more ways than one. It was a "perked up" audience all set for a good time, and they were not disappointed! The birthday celebrants were many including Dorothy Papcke. Eileen Bentler who also shared a birthday was especially honored for her dedication in sending cards on behalf of the Villa Serena. She gives of her time and love for each card sent.

The entertainment by the Villa Serena residents and members was a "smash"! We really had some good talent in the following performers: a Villa Serena song was written and song by Rudy Freed; a choral group composed of Ruth Storey, Erna Haller, Doris Sommitz, Barbara Herczog, Dorothy Stahre, and Clifton Kroh sang many beautiful familiar tunes; Gordon Groewold, composer and piano accompanist, did an excellent job; and Dorothy Papcke, a real nightinggale, sang beautiful renditions of "Every Day of My Life" and "I Love You So;" Mary Sherry tap danced, and Ed Antene played the banjo! Last but not least, Sammy Berk, who always plays up a storm with his piano.

The audience was quite overwhelmed with this grand performance of the Villa Serena talent! They deserve a lot of credit!

This evening terminated with yum, yummy refreshments and every-body went away content and in anticipation of more such programs.

BAND CONCERT ON THE VILLA LAWN

What could make for a peppier, more enjoyable evening than a "tummyful of m-m-m," oh so good, zingy barbecued ribs, all the fixins too, and an earful of thrilling zingy music. How much luckier could we get than to have been able to enjoy the United States Post Office Band playing out of doors in the beautiful setting of our own backyard. What music -band arrangements, soft and sweet tunes, toe-tapping melodies, and a trip or two down memory lane. We are more than grateful to this fine group, and certainly no words can describe the enjoyment that was ours when those very talented baton-twirlers strutted their stuff. How well trained they are; they, and the band too, seemed to get as much thrill out of playing as we got out of listening. Many of our neighbors enjoyed the evening too, and did you know that one of our very good neighbors, Felix Ostrowski, custodian at St. Francis, played with the group too. Doesn't the good fellowship and their love of playing beautiful music together really rub off on a person?

BOUTIQUE '77

Special thanks to those diligent boutique workers who have accomplished so much during the hot July days. Although August sometimes tends to be one of those months when you say "I'll think about or do about that tomorrow," let's try to think "more positive" about our work on the boutique items. We all know every little bit of work done now will make a vast difference when the November countdown date is upon us. So let's all plan to have lots of boutique work to show when the summer is over!

ROUNDUP TIME AT THE VILLA SERENA RANCH AND AUGUST BIRTHDAY-ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

Steak and corn on the cob!

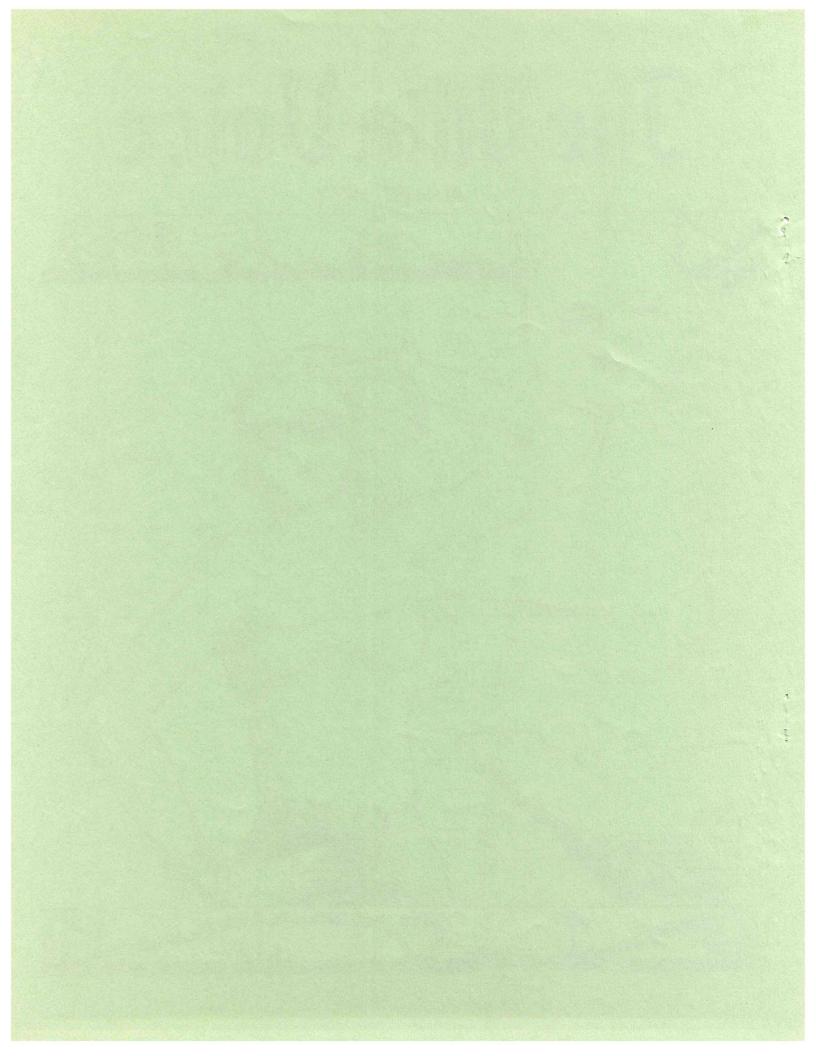

It's hard to think of anything more taste tempting and mouthwatering good! The Villa Serena offers this eating pleasure as an annual event during the sultry month of August. It's been a proven success in an eating adventure!

We suggest that you buy your roundup dinner ticket ($4.00 per person) early for this summer evening event. Wednesday, August 10th, is the date to red circle on your calendar. Dinner will be served at 5:00 p.m.

At 7:00 p.m. til 9:00 p.m. Ed and Gilda Cifani will be performing for your entertainment and dancing pleasure. We are delighted to welcome back two of our most favorite personalities.

Come join us for another pleasurable and entertaining evening at the Villa Serena. Come and enjoy one of the best steak dinners in town!

"Take time to enjoy the beauty of our existence."
