ONE DAY AT A TIME

There are two days in every week about which we should not worry, two days which should be kept free from fear and apprehension.

One of these days is YESTERDAY, with its mistakes and cares, its faults and blunders, its aches and pains. YESTERDAY has passed forever beyond our control.

All the money in the world cannot bring back YESTERDAY. We cannot undo a single act we performed; we cannot erase a single word we said, YESTERDAY is gone.

The other day we should not worry about is TOMORROW, with its possible adversaries, its burdens, its large promise and poor performance. TOMORROW is beyond our immediate control.

TOMORROW'S sun will rise, either in splendor or behind a mask of clouds—but it will rise. Until it does, we have no stake in TOMORROW, for it is as yet unborn.

This leaves only one day—TODAY. Any man can fight the battles of just one day. It is only when you and I add the burdens of those two awful eternities—YESTERDAY and TOMORROW—that we break down. It is not the experiences of TODAY that drive men mad—it is the remorse or bitterness for something which happened YESTERDAY and the dread of what TOMORROW will bring.

Let us, therefore, live but ONE DAY AT A TIME.

LUNCH AND BINGO REPORT

The day was sunny and we were ready to play BIG BINGO for money -- after a delicious lunch at noon on Wednesday, June 13th.

Mr. Chesler called loud and clear for all of us to hear. We were happy or blue, strange what the right numbers can do.

Door prizes were two 'helmets' of orange hue, won by Frieda vormelker and Lou.

Also four prizes of $5.00 each were donated by Elena and John Prokay in honor of their 2nd wedding anniversary!

Lunch/Bingo (Continued)

Mary Calogero called for more games. Then Mr. Chesler called for the final fill-up. If won in 57 numbers, it would pay $200.00! Since this was not done, calling continued and $40 was paid to the first person who filled the card.

It's a good return for your money. Why not try your luck next time?

WELCOME SUMMER

DINNER AND DANCE

Thursday, June 21st, we assembled at 5:00 P.M. for a dinner of tender brisket or beef or fish. Watermelon was a cool, refreshing finish to a wonderful meal.

After dinner many diners strolled around our beautiful grounds. By 6:30, the Red/Blue room, patio and lobby were filled as we waited for the musicians. Chick Jacobs and his band ...Chick played piano, Andy Veres, sax and violin and Frank Germane, string bass. What a marvelous group! The music was extra smooth and sweet...good for listening or for our dancing feet.

We had a sing-along including 'Baby Face', 'Yes Sir, That's My Baby', 'Always' and, just for Mr. Chesler, 'Ramona'. We do like to sing!!! Mr. Chesler read special verses to the Battle Hymn of the Republic and we sang the chorus. Very good.

June birthdays were celebrated and we sang happy birthday as 14 of our friends stood up.

Two couples danced to the Anniversary Waltz. Carl and Mary Calabrese (61 years) and Adam and Jeannette Falzarono, 52 years. Congratulations!

Everyone stood as we sang 'God Bless America' for the 4th of July.

The delightful evening closed with our theme, 'I'll See You In My Dreams'.

REMEMBER THE OLD FOLKS

Remember, old folks are worth a fortune; with silver in their hair, gold in their teeth, stones in their kidneys, lead in their feet and gas in their stomach.

I have become a little older since I saw you last and a few changes have come into my life since then. Frankly, I've become quite a frivolous old gal. I'm seeing five gentlemen every day.

As soon as I wake up, 'Will Power' helps me get out of bed. Then I go to see 'John'. Then 'Charlie Horse' comes along and when he is here, he takes a lot of my time and attention. When he leaves, 'Arthur Itis' shows up and stays the rest of the day. He doesn't like to stay in one place very long, so he takes me from joint to joint. After such a busy day, I'm really tired and go to bed with 'Ben Day'. What a life!!!

P.S. The preacher came to call the other day. He said at my age, I should be thinking about the hereafter. I told him "Oh! I do all the time no matter where I am, in the parlor, upstairs, in the kitchen or down in the basement. I ask myself "What am I here after?"

SPECIAL SUNDAY DINNER

Villa Serena was bustling on Sunday, June 3rd, as a large group gathered for an unusual activity - Sunday dinner of barbecued ribs or chicken, done to perfection by our chef Frank Shaw. What a magnificent feast!!! Several sets of families were in attendance. We could bring non-members to this special event.

At 6:30, Mike Jacobs and his band played for our dancing and listening pleasure. And we did like the music!

Some chairs had been removed so we had more room for dancing (which we appreciated very much). People sat in the lobby or on the patio, until the rains came and forced them inside.

The air was filled with excitement and music. Several birthdays and anniversaries were celebrated.

Mr. Chesler, as usual, was a perfect MC. The lovely evening ended with our theme song.

to plan your exercise time for morning or evening to avoid the hottest part of the day.

Our class is taking a summer break and will meet again after Labor Day. I am very grateful to the wonderful people in the class for the supportive, fun, caring spirit they bring to class every week.

Thank you one and all.

MEDICAL NEWS

Recently an article appeared in the Plain Dealer and other newspaper including the New England Journal of Medicine about a new surgical procedure in fetal medicine.

A team of doctors at the University of California in San Francisco have successfully performed this surgery after having spent more than a decade developing the technique.

Among the team of three doctors, was Dr. Roy A. Filly, whose parents, Mr. & Mrs. Anthony Filly, are residents of the Villa Serena.

We are sure that Ida and Tony are very proud of their son for his efforts in contributing to a milestone in fetal medicine and pediatric surgery.

Congratulations Ida and Tony!

ATTENTION: COOK-OUT TIME

It is that time again. Time for the residents annual cook-out. We all look forward to the aroma of hot dogs and hamburgers on the grill and also the aroma of freshly made dishes contributed by the residents.

We know most of you have at least one dish that is a specialty and would be more than glad to have everyone get a taste of it.

As you know, the Villa Serena furnishes the hot dogs, hamburgers, rolls and coffee.

We ask that you do not donate pickles, relishes and the like as we have plenty on hand. One of your specialties would be most appreciated.

If you do not care to cook, we suggest you contribute cold drinks, melon, or other goodies to round out the meal.

Please plan on attending so you can meet with your neighbors and also get to know some of the new tenants. Why not invite them to the cook-out now?

We always have a great time and know we will again this year. Do plan to attend.

One thing. Please sign up in the office for whatever you plan to bring. Thank you very much for your cooperation.

The date is Tuesday, July 24. Have you marked your calendar? Do it right now for this special event. See you then.
