WHAT MOM TOOK

Most often when we think of Mom
We think of what she's given:
The softness of a loving touch,
A gentle guide for living;
A nightly tip-toe in a room,
An understanding look;
But, sometimes when I think of Mom
I think of what she took.
She took a child and taught it how
To live this life with pride
She took those kindergarten tears,
And kept them all inside.
She took the hands that longed to hold
Her child and not let go Used them to push her child along
The way, to thrive and grow.
Took time to do some other things
Like sew, and clean and cook.
And never thought to ask for thanks
For all the things she took.
Thanks, Mom

GOOSEY GOOSEY GANDER

Every so often our friends, the Canadian geese stop by for a visit and make themselves known in more ways than one. Mr. Chesler keeps trying to give them away, but so far he's had no takers. Some complain about them, but it could be worse.

Canadian geese stay together in families year after year and have definite rules about who's boss over whom. They like certain kinds of grass for feed, so we must have what they like since they return so often. Get out your goose dictionary and see what it's all about. They have 10 different types of call, each one having a different meaning.

Geese live from 12 to 23 years average and some even longer. So don't get any idea of shooting them off, because they'll probably be coming back for quite some time.

But don't worry. Be happy we don't have the giant geese that weigh 24 pounds and are 48 inches long and have a 75 inch wingspan.

LET'S TRY THIS

Cary Grant didn't know the author of these thoughts but he repeated them in his 'Conversation' program. I think you'll benefit from the ideas and I hope I will also.

Please keep me from the habit of thinking I must say something on every subject and on every occasion.

Release me from trying to straighten out everyone's affairs.

Make me thoughtful but not moody.

Keep my tongue free from the recital of endless details. Seal my lips on my aches and pains.

I would like to have improved memory but I'll settle for the ability to capitulate when my memory clashes with the memory of others. Teach me the glorious lesson that on some occasions I may be mistaken.

Keep me reasonably kind; an embittered old person is a constant burden.

Please give me the ability to see good in unlikely places and talents in unexpected people. And give me the grace to tell them so, please Lord.

Hope you enjoyed this. See you next month.

SPECIAL DANCING. MARK YOUR CALENDARS!!!

On Friday, May 18th, ED AND GILDA CIFANI will be here for your dancing pleasure - NEED WE SAY MORE!!!

So join us after dinner on the above date and we will guarantee that you will have a wonderful dinner and a great evening of dancing to our "old" favorites.

The date again - FRIDAY, MAY 18th. See you there.

SHOWCASE CLASS

This is just a quick "hello" to let you know that we are still working away. We enjoyed making the cute bunnies and in fact are still finishing the few we didn't finish before our break. We will put them away safely until next year. We are still working on the tapestry shoulder bags. They are turning out beautifully if do say so ourselves. Now if someone can figure out a way to put a few extra hours in each day...

SEWING CLASS NEWS

Now that the weather is nice (and not too hot) it is the perfect time to get at those fix, mend or alter projects you've been putting off. There is more daylight, no ice on the sidewalks - and, well - no more excuses. The word is RECYCLE and it applies to our wardrobe as well. Bring that project and come and enjoy some fun as we share our various projects and your work will be finished in no time at all.

BRIDGE NOTES

It is hard to believe that winter has come and gone and we are approaching the end of our bridge sessions. We will go through May and at our last meeting on May 25th, we will have a party.

This year has been successful in that attendance has been good - we have averaged 7 tables each week, and all players have improved their bidding and play as evidenced by the number of slams bid and made. Congratulations to the following:

- Edna Mehlek and Elsie Horwitz
- Jean and Bill Griffiths
(2 on the same day)
- Aileen Spenser and Isabel Byron
- Edna Mehlek and Mrs. Crowley
- Edna Mehlek and Mr. Crowley
(Both same day)

Isabel Byron won the Easter "2 Prize".

EXERCISE CLASS

There is more evidence every day proving that we can affect our general health by certain choices we make.

A study by Kenneth Manton, PhD, professor and assistant of Duke's Center for Demographic Study, found that proper nutrition, rest, and exercise can do a great deal to reduce the risk of early death due to cancer or cardiovascular disease. It may be most important to adopt healthy habits as we age because our body gradually becomes less capable of tolerating abuse, such as overeating and inactivity. Our systems begin to weaken in our golden years so now is the time to do the most for our bodies.

Of all the positive actions you can take to improve and maintain your health, there is none so rewarding as walking. Combine this with exercise and you have a perfect combination toward wellness.

If you have not stopped in at our exercise class - do so - we do different exercises for all parts of the body. See the great work done by the enthusiastic participants.

PIANO CONCERT

Friday, April 6th, after a delicious dinner, Mary Calogero introduced our guest, Gary Pildner, who played the piano in masterful fashion.

He opened with 'World on a String' by Harold Arlen, then a medley of 'Embraceable You', 'Swonderful' and 'Lisa'. Then a few Berlin hits - 'Always', 'Remember' and 'What'll I Do'. More tunes by Tommy Dorsey and Rogers and Hart.

'The Oily Rag' was a tintillating tune written by Gary himself.

We sang alone to 'Peg O My Heart' and 'Harvest Moon'. We closed with 'I'll See You in my Dreams'.

The program was exciting, informative and lively and we hope Gary will return soon.

DINNER AND DANCE REPORT

On Friday, March 30th, we sat down to our usual tasty dinner of fish or pork chop. Spumoni was the dessert.

Mike Jacobs and his band were on stage at 6:30, for our dancing and listening pleasure. They opened with 'Tie a Yellow Ribbon' and 'Dancing in the Dark' Then on to Rock N Roll, Polkas, Alley Cat, Bird Dance and more fox trots.

The Mexican Hat dance was performed by Mary Oley, Idella Hoffer, Sally Berke and Norma Rasalti - splendidly done.

Many more of our favorite tunes were played, including 'Ramona' for Mr. Chesler.

We closed with our theme 'I'll See You in My Dreams'. A very enjoyable evening.

PASSOVER DINNER

We had many disappointed persons last month, due to the fact that conflicting holidays and were not able to schedule our usual
Passover Dinner.

So by popular request, we are announcing that we will be having a "third Seder Dinner" on FRIDAY, MAY 4th.

We are sorry to have disappointed so many of you and we hope to make up for it.

Dinner will consist of all of the traditional foods served at a typical Seder Dinner.

Wine - to praise God - Matzoh Ball Soup - to indicate the roundness and continuation of life, 1/2 baked chicken, glazed sweet potatoes for a sweet year, green vegetable, heralding the beginning of Spring, dessert, just to add a few calories to your abandoned diets.

After dinner join us all in the Red Room for dancing to "Juke Box Friday Night". We have some very danceable and wonderful tunes on our Juke Box. We are sure you will have a nice evening.

Cost of dinner and the entire evening is $6.50 per person.

* * * * *

LUNCH AND BIG BINGO

Since lunch and Big Bingo is very popular here, we are again going to try to keep you happy.
On Thursday, May 10th, we will serve lunch at noon and then at 1:30 the games begin.

Why not join us for lunch and then take your chances to win $200 if you get a fill-up in 57 numbers? Cards are just $2.00 each, per person or 3 cards for just $5.00 per person.

Tickets for lunch must be purchased in advance. Cost of lunch is $2.50. Check the menu page and make your selection.
