HARVEST TIME

The harvest is gathered, the fields are bare,
Thank the Lord for His daily share,
A Thanksgiving feast is set for all,
Kin or friend, when they come to call,
We lift our voices to Him above,
In a prayer of thanksgiving and of love.

a real warm reception.

ginning at 5:00 p.m. with enter-life at the Villa Serena.

"If you speak kind words than you will hear kind echoes."

CALENDAR REMINDER

.....I.S.D.A. CARD PARTY, Wednesday, November 8th, at 7:30 p.m. Tickets $1.50 can be purchases in the office.

The Board of Trustees and the Villa Serena staff extend sincere good wishes to each of you on the happy occasion of your birthday and your anniversaries.

"Over the river and through the woods to grandmother's house we go" is still sung to the same sweet tune, but oh my how the words have changed. "Over the freeway and out Mayfield Road to grandmother's apartment we go" is now the happy story. To pick up a stylishly dressed, perfectly coiffed grandma who will thoroughly enjoy--a cocktail before dinner, perhaps, the turkey and all the trimmings and "just a smidgeon of pumpkin pie, please" and when the holiday frivolity gets too hectic she can always come home to her quiet, comfortable apartment to relax and reminisce. Do you wonder why then when we bow our heads and say "Thank you Lord" we really mean it most sincerely. --Eileen Bentler

BOUTIQUE SHOP NEWS

That November 24th deadline is fast approaching and it is so gratifying and wonderful to see the many beautiful items that so many people have put together with such loving care for our Boutique.

We know you'll want to be first in line to buy the interesting decorations that have been made in the Boutique Workshop. There will be many varieties of Christmas arrangements for the table and tree ornaments, Christmas card calendars for the children and sewing organizers for the sewers in your family--to name just a few of the many fascinating items we saw in the making! The work being done in liquid embroidery on pillow cases and tablecloths is really beautiful. Lovely aprons are being made in the sewing classes and the knitting and crochet classes have made a tremendous number of warm and decorative pieces. Look, too, for some marvelous decoupage work.

All of this is just to give you a peek preview of all the great work that is being done in so many areas to make this our biggest and best Boutique ever!

We encourage all of our members to continue to help and to let us know what you are making for our Boutique so that we will have some idea of what to expect. May we also encourage you to get your donations in as soon as they are ready.

WE URGENTLY NEED VOLUNTEERS TO HELP SELL ON THE DAY OF THE BOUTIQUE. Give us your helping hand on November 24th. Sign in at the office, please.

For all of you who have wanted to learn how to square dance, here is your great chance.

Our favorite caller, John Hucko, will be with us on Friday, November 30th, at 8:00 p.m. to teach us how it is all done.

Let's show him a fine turnout. Square dancing is great fun. Put on your wide wide skirts, fancy pantalones, and "promenade" on down to the Villa Serena with your partner.

UP AND DOWN THE HALLWAYS

Anna Puhalla is recuperating at her daughter's home in Wickliffe. All best wishes for a rapid recovery. Also the best of good wishes to Isabelle Hanlon, Marie LoGrasso, Helen Rotenbor, Gladys Crawford, and Gabrielle Holiday who are all home from the hospital.

Hospitalized during this past month are Ursala Paynick, Helene Hansen, Warrene Rash, Matilda Katz, and Hazel Barrett. Warm wishes to speed them to a quick return home.

Anna Kish and Bertha Gavigan are now residing in nursing homes. Hello to them from all of us.

Those scary but cheerful Halloween faces painted on our Villa windows were done by the painting class. Nan Rood and helpers gave us lots to enjoy with their added Halloween cut-outs and of course the real pumpkins came from the Villa Serena's own garden--compliments of the gardeners.

Card party winners during the month of October were Mrs. George Maurer, Joe Bentler, Mary Miller, Anne Gallagher, Nan Rood, and Rose Iglar.

Many thanks to Lad Cimler, Dorothy Khaner (co-chairmen) and all their wonderful volunteers for the terrific job of putting the Heart Fund and Muscular Dystrophy kits together.

Henry Herczog had a nice visit from his brother who is here from California.

The VILLA VOICE and its readers extend sincere sympathy to the family of

Blanche Brooks

Our sincere sympathy, too, to Walter Ruth on the death of his brother, to Mary Miller on the death of her brother-in-law, to Clara Colson and Helen Sigman on the death of their sister-in-law, to Ethel Blakeney on the death of her grandson.

Our apology and belated birthday greetings to Caroline Novy whose birthday on October 15th was not listed on our birthday page lastmonth. HAPPY BIRTHDAY.

Mary Calogero and her husband, Frank, had a marvelous visit to Italy. But we think she is as glad to be home as we certainly are to have her back home with us.

Vacationers from the Villa and home again are the Frank Zieglers who were traveling out West; Anna Lyons has returned from a trip to New Jersey; Alma Merkle had a nice trip to Canada, and Joseph Martin traveled to Michigan. Larry Spencer and Terry enjoyed a great trip to Denver, Colorado.

SPECIAL THANK YOU TO BIRTHDAY AND ANNIVERSARY HOSTESSES

In keeping with our desire to involve as many people as possible in many activities of the Villa Serena, we have inaugurated a new plan.

The ladies of the eighth floor were asked to act as hostesses for the October Birthday and Anniversary Party. They did a marvelous job and a very special thanks to them for their gracious hostessing for the evening.

Every month, hereafter, each floor will have a turn to be our hostesses for our special birthday-anniversary party. We look forward to our November party when the ladies of the 7th floor will be our charming hostesses.

Look for the sign up sheet on your floor and we will look forward to meeting you as our special hostess for the month.

UNCLE RUDY'S TRAVEL NEWS

Wednesday, October 17th, a busload of happy travelers left Villa Serena under a cloudy sky but soon the sun came out and everyone could enjoy the beautiful countryside in all its colors. Our destination was Cathedral of Tomorrow in Cuyahoga Falls where a delicious buffet lunch was enjoyed. After lunch we toured through the temple. It was a very interesting experience. The afternoon was spent touring the countryside. One place we will long remember was Columbia Trailer Park in Olmstead Falls. Here they have reconstructed and are running the old Cleveland streetcars. It brought back old memories and a good time was had by all.

Everyone seems to enjoy a one day trip. Therefore, I am happy to announce we'll leave Villa Serena Wednesday, November 7th, at 7:00 a.m. for a day at Niagara Falls. We'll tour the Canadian side, have lunch, visit the Welland Canal, and see the locks where the big ocean liners go through. We'll stop for dinner on the way back. I am glad to report we'll have a brand new Anderson bus. Bus fare is $11.50. You buy the meals. Please call 461-2457 or write Rudolf Freed, 6800 Mayfield Rd. Apt. 618, (44124).
Yours in friendship,
Uncle Rudy

P.S. Watch for December VILLA VOICE for something big coming up. U.R.

CALENDAR REMINDER

Professor Joseph Kall will lecture the evening of Wednesday, November 28th at 7:00 p.m. No afternoon lecture on Thursday, November 29th.

A LETTER OF THANKS AND RECOGNITION

Here's a very nice letter we received from the Muscular Dystrophy Association.....

"We want to thank the Villa Serena Senior Citizens Center for the prompt and outstanding job you did in packing the Muscular Dystrophy marcher kits.

"Without the help of groups such as yours our residential march would not be accomplished. Man power such as yours is difficult to come by and extremely expensive.

"Funds raise from our residential march will be used to purchase much needed equipment for the muscular dystrophy patients, to send children to our annual Jerry Lewis summer camp and to support the research projects being conducted in an effort to find the cure for this crippling disease. Again thanks for your help."

Sincerely,

(signed) Malcolm A. Cole
District Director

The Board of Trustees and the staff of the Villa Serena also wish to thank all who helped in this particular project and in addition to all of you who participate in our charity projects at the Villa.

We are very proud of all of you in this respect and the contributions that have been made.

"Worry is about as useless as whispering in a boiler factory."

BIRTHDAY-ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION
IN OCTOBER

What an attendance, what a throng of happy faces attended our birthday and anniversary party, Friday, October 19th. We were really bursting at the seams again. Lo and behold we were met at the door by Jack Baker and Emory Balog, from the Men's Club, who did a good job of ushering!

There were many senior citizens celebrating their birthdays and there were three couples present, celebrating their anniversaries. They were Mr. and Mrs. H. Siegel, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ritchie, and Mr. and Mrs. Roland Miner. Many more happy occasions for all of them.

The highlight of the evening was when Mr. Chesler, our gracious host, introduced a former Villa resident, Bertha Gavigan, who just recently moved to the Little Sisters of the Poor, and who was celebrating her 91st birthday. Mr. and Mrs. Sczernicky were the good samaritans who brought her here to join us for the birthday celebration.

We welcomed back "The Twilights" Byron Gray, guitarist, Church Ventura, accordianist, and Henry Zander, banjoist, who were our fine entertainment for the evening. They sure gave us a great evening of fun.

Refreshments were served as usual, for what is a birthday without them. I am sure it was quite an enjoyable evening for all. Keep coming to all our events, we love to have you.

BOOK REVIEW NITE IN OCTOBER

On Monday evening, October 22nd, Peg Harris was at the Villa to give the first book review of the season entitled IN ONE ERA AND OUT THE OTHER by Sam Levinson. It is a very humorous book portraying his early life as a child in school and throughout his college years. Sam was the youngest of seven children and grew up in a humble home where love was always predominant. Always injecting humor into every situation, he soon discovered he could earn a dollar that way.

Although he at first taught school he finally broke away from teaching and went into show business and became very successful. The thrill of his life was when his first grandchild was born.

We had a large attendance and I'm sure everyone enjoyed it immensely.

GARDEN NEWS

Mother Nature tells us it is time to clean up our gardens and to prepare for next year. We are thankful for harvesting the fruits of our labor. When the frost is on the pumpkins--that's it!
