EXERCISE CLASS NEWS

Welcome to the new participant in our class. We always like to have more people join our group. We have been doing some low impact work, dyna-band stretching and free weight work. The class is open to new people all the time. We start out slowly so everyone can work at their own pace. Come and watch if you are not sure about joining. Then you can make up your own mind. I know you'll be smart and take advantage of this wonderful opportunity to maintain your health and well being.

LINE DANCING

The new line dancing class has gotten off to a great high steppin start. Each week we review the dances we learned and then learn a new one. So far we have been mastering the Electric Slide, Achky Breaky, LeRoy Brown, Tush-push and cab driver. No experience necessary!!! Come and learn with us. We have a fun time, especially when we are dancing with two left feet! You people are always welcome.

RUBY'S POETRY

The leaves may fall
And winds may blow -
We are expecting it,
you know.
That sudden chill,
Say what you will
We are expecting cold and snow.
Iambic pentameter,
That's what it takes
To make this poem rhyme.
You find some words
That sound alike
And set them in a line.
They may make sense
Or they may not
It really doesn't matter
The whole idea is just to make it
Come out in a patter.

HAVE YOU MET...

...Fred Montallo? Fred is my new neighbor across the hall. He is friendly and cordial to all. We welcome him! Fred was raised in Little Italy. This area is not unfamiliar to him. During World War II, Fred was based in the China, Burma and India military field of operations. He said it was an unbelievable experience to see the degradation and the futility of the people who live there.

Fred was married for 43 years and was widowed two years ago. There is a son and daughter and five grandchildren. They live in the area now except for a few grandchildren.

Fred was a barber by trade and had his own shop for several years. He also drove for Cleveland Builders Supply and later a school bus in Wickliffe. He resided in Wickliffe for many years.

After retirement he and his wife moved to Las Vegas and lived there for several years. Later they moved to Los Angeles. After Fred was widowed, he decided to return to Cleveland.

Fred enjoys golf and shooting pool and he was telling me about Pea Pool. That is something I have never heard of. (Never too old to learn). He had been taking some dancing instructions at a senior service center before moving here four months ago. We hope he will avail himself of the line dancing lessons we now offer.

Fred enjoys our dinners and our pool room. He does miss his dog so we hope he can fill his time with the activities here.

Thanks for your time, Fred. Again we welcome your friendship.

SEWING CLASS NEWS

With fall upon us we are reminded that the days are getting shorter - and colder. It is time to take a look at our warmer clothing and make sure everything is in working, or fitting order. Now is a good time to make those little repairs we have put off - is it too short, too long, too big, too small, does it need an update or a new belt, a facelift? You can always make something new. The advantage is yours if you don't like the current fashions or can't get anything that fits. Come with your problems and let's look for solutions.

WORDS FROM JOSEPHINE

I am back. The summer has been "frought" with activities, emergencies and on and on. I will say so far so good tho. I hope to bring smiles and good thoughts with this article.

For the first time in years we planted some tomatoes in the front shrubbery bed. There the tomatoes grow among the geraniums, petunis and a few weeds. The tomato plants have grown so large that I can count the things from my window. What a great sight! Some have actually turned red. Have you tried a sandwich of Italian bread, sliced fresh tomatoes and mayo? It's great but not every day. Please!

I hope to plant peppers next year and maybe they won't be hot like those we planted 30 years ago. We gave them all to neighbors who had better pipes than ours.

Remember the blackout we had a while back? Well, I actually baked a cake by candle light for my daughter-in-law's birthday. Her Mom baked one too (she had lights) and we had candles for them. Blowing out candles is fun you know. Each little kid gets to blow.

I came across the public broadcasting station recently and found it interesting. They have long and informative news programs. Great for putting one to sleep or waking you up.

I have to tell you about the squirrels and the birds playing in the trees we see from the kitchen window. The squirrels chase the birds away very playfully.

Now I hope you are all smiling. Plan to do so more often. Best wishes to all of you for a great fall season. It's my favorite time of the year.

Your friend, Josephine Gentile

IT WAS A GOLDEN EVENING

The October birthday and anniversary dinner was something very special.

Those with a birthday or an anniversary received colorful balloons to tie to their chairs. At the end of the meal they each got a big glob of ice cream on top of their peach pie.

After dinner it was an impatient wait for the entertainment to start. But, once the SELREC singers started the wait was forgotten. They were all dressed elegantly, most with shiny gold dresses, blouses, bow ties and even hair bows.

They had a great, lively program. Most of the songs were familiar and those that weren't were done beautifully.

Some of you don't participate in the dinners for various reasons, but, you're certainly welcome to come down and enjoy the entertainment after the dinner.

OUR VERY SPECIAL THANKS

For the past 25 years, every Villa Serena resident and non-resident member has received our special greetings in recognition of their birthdays and their anniversaries.

During these years, our list of birthdays and anniversaries has grown by leaps and bounds. It is not unusual now to send out between 60-70 greetings each month.

In 1988 this obligation was taken on by none other than our very hard working Carol Cordaro. In this short period of time, Carol has sent out over 4,000 cards. That's quite a record and a lot of writing.

No other activity has received more appreciation by those who are sent cards from the Villa Serena each month.

It has now come time for this lady to take a well earned rest from her wonderful chores in our behalf. We want to express our sincere thanks for her dedication and to let her know that her work has been truly appreciated.

The job has now been accepted by Carole Clay and Ann Janoco and we also want to thank them for their graciousness in accepting this most wonderful task of sending greetings each month.

ITS TIME TO VOTE IN OUR COMMUNITY

PLEASE DO NOT FORGET!!!!!!

Tuesday, November 2nd is the day to exercise your right to vote.

Whatever may be your convictions, your vote counts - Take the time to be a loyal american and vote for the candidate of your choice.

Too many of us are becoming very lacksadaisical and uninterested in voting because they have become disenchanted with some of our elected officials.

But just remember, by your not voting, you might be the one vote that can cause the loss of an election or re-election of a very loyal and dedicated person who must might be deserving of having the chance to serve you.

THANKSGIVING DAY CELEBRATION
IN VILLA SERENA STYLE

How did we get to Thanksgiving Day so quickly this year. It seems that just yesterday we celebrated the last Thanksgiving Day and here we are again talking about another one.

Yes, we will honor this special day at the Villa Serena on THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 18th which will be the beginning of our holiday season
when we all always look forward to our praying and thanking God for our many blessings as one big family at the Villa Serena.

At this time of year, it is especially important when many of our young men are in foreign lands trying to stem the wave of starvation and inhumane treatment of others.

What a celebration be as we say every year without the presence of our good friend "Tom Turkey" who provides us with his very life so that we may enjoy this special time of year.

Our entertainment for the evening will be befitting the dignity and tradition of this very special night. You will enjoy all the delicious food, the program and getting together as friends.

Tickets for this special event will be $7.50 per person.
