GHOSTIES, GOBLINS, AND GIGGLING
WITCHES HAUNT VILLA SERENA

The pumpkins are on the vine; the days are getting shorter; the nights longer which tell the devilish spirits of the Villa Serena that it is time to get ready for our annual Halloween party.

There is lots of fun, food, and plenty of laughs to be found at our Halloween party. Let's all put together an unusual costume or try to find a really scary mask to wear. This is really a night when you can cut loose and become a new personality!

The good time-fun time ghosties, goblins and witches night will be Friday, October 29th. The evening starts with one of Evelyn's great chicken and rib dinners (with all the trimmings). We started our new season with gusto with our birthday-anniversary party Wednesday, September 8th. It was well attended by a fun loving crowd. The birthdays were highlighted by the attendance of a former Villa resident, Mrs. Jennie Deublen, who was celebrating her 90th birthday. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bentler and Mr. and Mrs. Mathew DiCarlo were celebrating their anniversaries. We wished them all many more happy years in good health.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Rosenberg brought the "Entertainmobile" to perform for us. They were a very fine group of talented singers and dancers. Their show for this bicentennial year was the "Red, White, and Blue Review." These lovely ladies were from the National Council of Jewish Women. Mrs. Rosenberg was the director, writer, and producer. Debbie Ross was the piano accompanist. Their performance was excellent and was immensely enjoyed by all.

So long until the next time for more such wonderful entertainment!

We send our warmest get well wishes to Ella Ferguson, Anna Lyons, Barbara Vaul, and to Randolph Yeager, our painting instructor.

TIME FOR CHANGE

The rolling woodlands so rich
 so bold
 Are changing slowly to brown
 and gold.
 Falling leaves are earthward
 bound
 To form a patchquilt on the ground.
 Suddenly the warmth of summer
 is nearly done
 As we look forward to some winter fun.

IT'S OCTOBER

The merry-go round is quiet, the ferris wheel has stopped; no colored balloons floating in the air. No glorious smell from the popcorn machine, even the clickety-clack of the wheels of chance no longer make music. Why? It's October. Time for other pleasures: the flight of the birds as they journey south: the beautiful roadside stands loaded with the glorious jewels of a bountiful harvest; the work of the Master painter as He works on each leaf and tree. A day to be joyful and grateful to a great man Christopher Columbus. Are these pumpkins on the counter and costumes and masks on the shelf and look there is candy chicken corn in those cellophane bags. Of course, it's October and Halloween. Thrill to the marching bands and the high-stepping cheerleaders and the glory of each touchdown. Autumn isn't too bad now is it?

KITCHEN KORNER

LEARNING ABOUT THE MICROWAVE
OVEN

CHICKEN WITH RICE

- 1 fat chicken (3 1/2 lbs.)
- 2 T. chicken fat
- Boiling water
- 1 medium-sized onion, chopped
- 1 cup rice
- Salt and paprika

Clean and cut chicken into pieces for serving. Salt and let stand several hours. Heat fat in heavy kettle, add onion, fry golden brown and remove onion. Then fry chicken in the fat and when slightly browned, add paprika to taste; cover with boiling water, and let simmer about 1 hour, to yield 3 cups broth. Soak rice in cold water, drain, add the fried onion, 1 teaspoon salt and 3 cups of the chicken broth gradually. When rice is nearly done, add chicken and finish cooking on a very small flame, pot tightly covered. Care must be taken that rice should not get too soft.

OATMEAL MUFFINS

- 1 cup warm cooked oatmeal
- 1 cup flour
- 1/4 cup sugar
- 4 tsps. baking powder
- 1 tsp. salt
- 1/3 cup milk
- 1 egg
- 4 T. melted butter

Mix flour, sugar, baking powder and salt; add oatmeal and work until well mixed. Add remaining ingredients. Beat well. Bake in buttered muffin pans 20 minutes.

--Amelia Nagy

The Villa Serena ladies had the good fortune of meeting a very personable and charming young lady on September 21st in the Red Room of the Villa. Mrs. Kathy Schuler, a graduate of Bowling Green College, works as a home economist at the Illuminating Company and was sent here to demonstrate cooking in a microwave oven.

She was most interesting in telling of the history of the microwave oven and explaining very clearly what to do with it and what not to do. Mrs. Schuler baked a cake in five minutes and cooked a chicken which she served over rice and mushrooms in ten minutes.

We were lucky enough to taste everything which was truly delicious. It was a couple of hours well spent.

--Dorothy Khaner

Cooking Hint: In cooking, follow as far as possible the rule of the druggist in compounding any mixture, that is, mix the ingredients thoroughly, putting in one at a time. For instance, if you have three ingredients mix two before adding the third, and stir in the third well before adding a fourth, and so on. Always measure dry materials first.

There is a sixteenth-century proverb that still holds good: "God may send a man good meat, but the devil may send an evil cook to destroy it."

CLASS NOTES.

BRIDGE. Bridge classes are going well in spite of our change to Monday. There is good enrollment in both the beginner and advanced classes. For those who would like to enroll late, your fee is prorated depending upon the number of lessons remaining. Come join us, we do have fun.

--Ve Karash

CANCER AIDES. The Cancer volunteers are still meeting in the Blue Room every Tuesday morning. All ladies are most welcome to come and work with us. There are always bandages to make, for the need is great. You can easily learn how to fold them and have a good time in the bargain. See you on Tuesday next from 10-12?

--Dorothy Khaner

EXERCISE. Men and women are invited to "Fun and Fitness" every Wednesday afternoon from 2:00 to 3:00. Everyone needs moderate exercise. You feel better. You will have less nervous tension. Your attitude toward life will be more relaxed. You will function better. Your heart will be stronger; your blood circulation will be tops. You will look better. Your steps will be more lively and you will have more energy, initiative and confidence in yourself. Besides all these advantages--you will have fun. See you on Wednesday at 2:00?

--Jean Daniels

PAINTING. Vern Morgan and Mike Suvak made a unique contribution to the VILLA VOICE in the producing of the September cover in memory of Frank Alesci. It was done in a very short space of time in a very professional way. Special thanks to both of them. In addition, to the return of the old times in the painting class this year, we were happy to welcome several new members: Joseph Marazzi, Lois Purvis, and Eileen Rodger. The class is looking forward to the return of their instructor, Randolph Yeager, who is recovering from a recent illness. During the summer, Mr. Yeager has collected some marvelous prints which he is eager to show his class upon his return.

SEWING. The sewing classes are in full swing! Because of the large number of enrollees the regular procedure had to be changed. Our large class is sewing with knits, and it promises to be a very productive class with cooperation among all. We know everyone will enjoy the classes and be able to construct worthwhile garments. Boutique sewing will be included in some of the sessions.

--Jean Gold

BOUTIQUE WORKSHOP. Monday and Wednesday finds a very large group of ambitious women eagerly working on Boutique. As usual we are on our final projects for our target date of November 20th. Many new and clever items are being made this year. Willing hands are always needed so join our happy group and help Boutique 1976 to go over the top.
