TODAY'S GRANDMA

The old rocking chair will be empty today.
For Grandma no longer is in it;
She is off in her car to her office or shop
And buzzes around every minute.

No one can shove Grandma back on the shelf!
She is versatile, forceful and dynamic;
That isn't a pie in the oven, you know.
Her baking today is ceramic!!

You won't see her trundling off early to bed
From her place in a warm chimney nook:
Her typewriter clickety-clacks through the night,
For Grandma is writing a book.

Our heroine never allows backward looks,
To slow up her steady advancing,
She can't tend the babies for you anymore,
For Grandma is taking up dancing.

She isn't content with crumbs of old thought,
With meager and second-hand knowledge;
So don't bring your mending for Grandma to do...
For Grandma has gone back to college!!!!

DID YOU?

Another beautiful summer, just a page in our book of memories. Did you enjoy it? Did you get out into the warm sunshine and enjoy God's beautiful world? Did you make just one new friend? Are people better for having met you? What did I do for others? The needs of others will always challenge the best that's in you, but don't be afraid, you can't help everyone. There are some though who are put in your path for a purpose. It takes some imagination and real courage to put yourself in another's shoes.

Think about it--What would you wish others to do for you; if you were alone and unable to care for yourself; if you just moved into a new building and didn't know anyone; if just an enthusiastic "hello, how are you" would chase that care away. A kind heart is a labor of love. It doesn't happen automatically. A person has to want to be loving. Being kind, cheerful, generous and ever ready to open oneself to another is an achievement of grace and courage. Sometimes it's easy to tell another what to do about a problem--advice is cheap! but do I do anything for others?

There's still a long wonderful month ahead, to get out and enjoy the Father's gifts and Mother Nature's soft beauty--take advantage of it and why not ask that new neighbor to join you?

VILLA SERENA PICNIC

What a great day for a picnic, Thursday, August 16th. About 11:30 there were many people, lunches in hand, waiting to be seated at tables that were set up on the patio and on the surrounding grassy area. Kenny King boxes were seen everywhere!

When Mr. Chesler and Mary Calogero arrived about 1:00 they started the games. Some were a bit messy, especially the egg throwing contest. We also had water-filled balloons thrown back and forth--a few people got a good soaking. Even though it might have been a bit messy, it was a fun time and everyone was in good spirits.

The weather was hot but a good day for a picnic. And everyone went home with their tummies full and laughter in the air.

On Tuesday, August 14, we had 19 members present. Refreshments were served at 6:30 and the meeting followed at 7:00 PM.

The minutes of the previous meeting and also the treasurer's report were read and approved. The election and installation of a new administration were on the agenda because it had been postponed from the previous meeting.

Lou Vargo suggested we again postpone the election until the next meeting on Tuesday, September 11th. This motion was seconded by Dave Milroy.

Please register in the Game Room for the pool tournament. Thank you.

BOCCI

Our bocci/horseshoe season is over and already we are looking forward to next year. The idea of spending an hour in the yard in the fresh air attracted 20 or so people. There were 6 to 8 men and 12 to 15 ladies.

To round out the season, there was a match between the men and the ladies. We found out the men were better players. Yes, they won and so we ladies salute them. The players for the match were Carl Calabreze, Charlie Barracato, Faye Barun and Gen Devney.

Our thanks to the cheering section. They really kept us going.

RESIDENTS ICE CREAM SOCIAL

On Friday, August 10th, many residents of Villa Serena gathered on the gaily decorated patio for a treat of ice cream sundaes and coffee.

Sylvia Koptis and her committee had decorated the patio with colored streamers and Chinese lanterns. Tables were scattered over the lawn waiting for the customers. The weather cooperated--very comfortable.

About 140 happy residents waited to get in line for ice cream and their choice of sauces and whipped cream. This was really a "do it yourself" project and everyone was satisfied with their own concoctions.

Throughout the evening, Gordon Groenwald played melodies of long ago on the organ. It brought back memories. The music added a great touch. What a pleasant evening we all had! Hopefully we can do it again.

BOUTIQUE "84" - THE BEST EVER

YES!!, we want to make it "THE BEST EVER". Here we are in the month of September, so can November be far behind? No indeed, the day of our BOUTIQUE, NOVEMBER 3RD will be here before you know it.

Classes are in full swing in preparation for this important day in the life of the Villa. Many of you have been working hard since last November and even through the summer months. Now we must begin an all out effort to get so many things done before the magic date, November 3rd!

The Men's Club will soon have raffle tickets for sale. We're all gamblers at heart and what a thrill to hear your name called for one of the great prizes we are going to have. You can help us so much by your enthusiastic sales and purchases of our tickets.

Isn't it exciting to get ready for our big annual affair? All of this activity brings about two noteworthy results. First, it brings about a feeling of good fellowship and companionship to work together toward a common goal, and second, the goal becomes noteworthy because ultimately the funds realized from the Boutique are in turn used to make the Villa Serena the exciting, interesting, and vital Center you all enjoy.

Don't forget to tell your friends and relatives that the Villa Serena BOUTIQUE will be held on SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 3rd, 1984.

DANCE LESSONS, ANYONE?

Whether you know how to dance or not, why not join our Sunday evening dance classes? You may even learn a few new steps. We are again having a fabulous pair of dancers, Flossie and Gene Bluhm, show us the latest steps. And possibly a few old steps.

The price is just $5.00 for seven lessons and that is a very good price. Don't you agree? We will meet every other Sunday at 6:30 PM, starting on Sunday, September 16th. You do not need a partner -- singles are welcome. Come and meet new friends and have a good time.
