Imagine there is a bank that credits your account each morning with $86,400. It carries over no balance from day to day. Every evening it deletes whatever part of the balance you failed to use during the day. What would you do? Draw out every cent, of course!!

Each one of us has such a bank; its name is TIME. Every morning, it credits you with 86,400 seconds. Every night it writes off, as lost, whatever of this you have failed to invest to good purposes. It carries over no balance. It allows no overdrafts. Each day it opens a new account for you. Each night it burns the remains of the day. If you fail to use the day's deposits, the loss is yours.

There is no going back. There is no drawing against "tomorrow." You must live in the present, on today's deposit. Invest it so as to get from it the utmost in health, happiness, and success! The clock is running. Make the most of today.

To realize the value of ONE YEAR, ask a student who failed a grade.

To realize the value of ONE MONTH, ask a mother who gave birth to a premature baby.

To realize the value of ONE WEEK, ask the editor of a weekly newspaper.

To realize the value of ONE HOUR, ask the lovers who are waiting to meet.

To realize the value of ONE MINUTE, ask a person who missed a train.

To realize the value of ONE SECOND, ask a person who just avoided an accident.

To realize the value of ONE MILLISECOND, ask a person who won the silver medal in a race at the Olympic Games.

Treasure every moment that you have! And treasure it more because you shared it with someone special enough to spend your time with. And remember, TIME waits for no one!!

YESTERDAY IS HISTORY.

TOMORROW IS MYSTERY.

TODAY IS A PRECIOUS GIFT.

THAT'S WHY IT'S CALLED THE PRESENT.

Friends are a very rare jewel indeed. They make you smile and encourage you to succeed. They lend an ear, they share a word of praise, and they are always ready to open their

Who's New On Our Block

Summer has brought a lot of new faces to the Villa; one in July, four in August.

Say hello to Herb Wagner, #520. Herb lived in Gates Mills before he came to the Villa in July. He owned several laundromats and retired in 1962. He has two children, and is looking to have some fun and get a hobby.

In August, Vincetta DiSilvestro, #319, joined us. Vinny lived in Mentor with her brother, but was looking for a smaller home. Then her daughter thought she should have more friends, so here she is. She loves to cook, and was a stay-at-home mom - lucky her. She is anticipating making new friends.

New neighbor Jesse LoConti, #434, is "Jessie" to her friends. She lived with her son in Mayfield Heights before joining us. She loves dancing and has taught it for years to old and young alike. We need all the dancers we can get, so look for Jessie on the dance floor as soon as her hip mends.

Richmond Heights was home for Shirley Stoll, #728, where she lived with her sister. She worked for Bailey Meter and Murray Ohio before retiring three years ago. She loves to walk for exercise and should enjoy our beautiful grounds.

Carol and Sam Cordaro told their good friend Ray Klocek, #803, about the Villa. He worked for the Conrail System, where he was a project supervisor before retiring last year. He is an avid power lifting competitor, having won the Ohio title last year, and intends to compete in the nationals this month. He also plays softball, basketball, and loves to travel and dance.

It seems the good news about V.S. is getting around. Let's welcome all these new neighbors and make them feel at home.

New Editor For Villa Voice

Mike Ward has lived at Villa Serena for over two years and brings great experience to the position of Editor. Mike was educated at Cathedral Latin,

John Carroll and Case Western Reserve and he is an Army veteran. He has both taught school and worked in industry and is presently attending Lakeland College and working part time. Mike enjoys reading, puzzles and word games and says he bowls poorly and plays golf worse.

“Living at Villa Serena has been a wonderful experience. I feel very fortunate, and I’m grateful to the I.S.D.A. and the memory of Mr. Chesler.”

Flu Shots

Cuyahoga County Board of Health will administer flu shots at Schnurmann Luther Service Center on October 20th. However, you must pre-register in person Tuesday, October 6th at Schnurmann Service Center from 10:30 to 12:30. You must bring your Medicare card with you.

The Villa bus will run to Schnurmann both days for the convenience of residents.

If your primary insurance carrier is Medicare Part B, the cost is covered. With any other carrier, the cost is $8.00.

Just For Laughs

I want to thank you, Lord, for being close to me so far this day. With your help, I haven’t been impatient, lost my temper, been grumpy, judgmental, or envious of anyone. But I will be getting out of bed in a minute, and I think I’ll really need your help then. Amen.

Jewish High Holy Days

The year 5759 on the Jewish calendar begins with Rosh Hashanah on the first day of the month of Tishri, at sundown, September 20, of this year. Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement, ends on September 30. The traditional sound of the shofar, or ram's horn, will be heard, ushering the holy season in and out. Residents of Villa Serena and the staff of The Voice extend best wishes to our Jewish friends and a prayer that God may inscribe your names in the Book of Life for another year of good health, peace, and happiness. Shalom!

University Heights Band Concert at Villa Serena

On July 23, 100 residents, relatives, and friends of Villa Serena were regaled by the sound of music, to coin a phrase, as presented by the University Heights Symphonic Band, under the direction of Dr. Harvey Sisler. The band arrayed itself in the garden area just outside the Red Room, and the audience, fresh from portions of ice cream with a variety of toppings, sat on the patio and on lawn chairs in front of the musicians.

Perfect weather prevailed as the 40-piece band presented a 75 minute twilight concert featuring music by, among others, such composers and arrangers as Scott Joplin, Sousa, Dvorak, LeRoy Anderson, Richard Rogers, and Robert Russell Bennett.

The program, which inspired the audience to rhythmic applause and a "standing O," consisted of the march 'El Capitan," excerpts from "Caucasian Sketches," "A Manx Overture," "Slavonic Dances," "The U. S. Artillery March," "The Strenuous Life" rag, "The Irish Washerwoman," "The American Folk Rhapsody," a suite from "The Sound of Music," and , as a finale, that sine qua non of summer band concerts, "The Stars and Stripes Forever." The enthusiasm of the musicians and of emcee John Fairman quickly infected the audience.

Our thanks go out to these generous people and to their leader, who give their talent and their time to providing us entertainment. If you were there you loved it. If not, hope that we may be favored by a return visit from the University Heights Symphonic Band.

An Invitation... The staff of The Villa Voice hopes that you, residents and friends alike, enjoy our "new look" and that you will consider it to be your publication. Please feel free to offer suggestions, submit a story idea or an article, recipe, or an angry letter to the editor. We would be delighted to have your input. -Ed

September Season At The Villa

September has always felt more like the first of the year than January first ever did. Back to school! A fresh start on learning and new activities with all your old friends. There are new faces, people to meet and possibilities of friendships are everywhere.

With the beauty of autumn just ahead of us and days becoming shorter, we look forward to seeing friends who have been away for the summer.

We hope you will take advantage of exercise classes on Wednesdays to keep "summer fit" through the winter. Ceramics and sewing classes are scheduled again for your enjoyment. Of course, cards and bingo – wouldn't be The Villa without some high-spirited games.

Great programs are lined up for fall and winter. The season's "opening day" features a square dance September 11th with caller Bob Howell who has been calling square dances for 53 years! We're glad to have him back so find your country clothes and comfy shoes and come dance at The Villa.

On September 18th we are very fortunate to have performing Vitaliy Bezrodnov, award winning accordionist from Russia who has relocated from Denver to Cleveland and has a huge following among senior audiences in both areas. His program will be melodies as well as waltz and polka music of Western Europe – German, Polish, Irish, Scottish and, of course, Russian. This much sought after musician has wowed 'em everywhere so don't miss him.

Dinner's at 5 and programs at 6:30 so plan to be there!

*Dinners, games, activities, and movies!
